THE OFFICIAL FIGURES.

The official returns from all the states have been received at Washington and the result is given below. The returns are given by sections which lend an additional interest to the official count. The following is the table of northern states, showing a republican plurality:

	Rep.	Dem.	Pro.	Lab.
California	124,809	117,720	5,761	.....
Colorado	50,709	37,542	2,100	1,265
Connecticut	74,581	74,920	4 284	.....
Illinois	370,636	344 491	21,569	8,450

Vermont	45,192	19,788	1,450	.....
Wisconsin	176,553	155,262	14,477	8,152
Totals	4,083,169	3,613,488	214 207	84,702

It will be seen from the foregoing that the plurality for the republicans in the north is 469,681 against 432 555 in 1884. The total republican gain is 494.187, and the total democratic gain 457,021. The total vote of the southern states was 42,-312 less than in 1884, while the total vote of the northern states is 949 735 more than four years ago. The following table gives the southern vote:

	Rep.	Dem.	Pro.	Lab.
Alabama	57,197	117,320	533	.....
Arkansas	58,732	85,962	511	10,613

Virginia	150,438	151,977	1,678	.....
W. Virginia	78 491	79,380	.....	.....
Totals	1,1 8,306	1,720,757	31,077	59,441

The democratic plurality is 567 361 against 455,570 in 1884. The republicans lose 104,553 votes in the south, over 1884, while the net democratic gain is 111,791. Here is another interesting table showing the republican pluralities in the republican states, and the gains and losses by states:

	Rep. Pl.	Rep. Gain.	Rep. Loss
California	7,089	.....	6,948
Colorado	13,224	4,957	.....
Illinois	22,948	.....	3,077
Indiana	2,348	8 875	.....

Michigan	22,0 3	19,931	.....
Minnesota	36 995	.....	5,084
Nebraska	27,873	5,352	.....
Nevada	1 939	324	.....
New Hampshire	2,370	.....	1,054
New York	14,373	15,022	.....
Ohio	19,569	.....	12,203
Oregon	6 769	4,513	.....
Pennsylvania	79,458	.....	1,561
Rhode Island	4 627	.....	2,212
Vermont	26,408	6,221	.....
Wisconsin	7,271	6,849	.....
Totals	477,,66	116,666	34,881

This makes a net republican gain of 78,119 in the northern states. A like table for the south shows the following result:

	Dem. Pl.	Dem. Gain.	Dem. Loss.
Alabama	60,113	25,753	.....
Arkansas	27,210	5,178	.....
Connecticut	326	.....	910
Delaware	3,441	.....	572
Florida	12,082	9,157	.....
Georgia	69 059	13,905	.....
Kentucky	23,606	.....	6,176
Louisiana	54,700	33,576	.....

New Jersey	7 149	2,791	.....
North Carolina	18,118	.....	4,796
South Carolina	55,055	3,023	.....
Tennessee	18 799	9,618	.....
Texas	146,6 3	14,497	.....
Virginia	1,539	.....	4,802
West Virginia	889	.....	3,382
Totals	574,819	145,775	34,814

The net democratic gain is 112.982 in the democratic states; the net republican gain in the northern states being 78.119 makes the net democratic gain 34,813.

THE DIFFICULTY ABOUT SOUTHERN ELECTIONS.

But the Southern Bourbon prints in seeking to justify the suppression of the colored vote in the cotton states all fall back on the old pretext that they must protect themselves against "a revival of carpetbag government" and "negro domination." The southern democrats may as well understand now as at any future time that these attempts to pervert and misstate the actual issue will not serve any longer. The abuses of "carpet bag" government are dead in the south and can not be revived. They belonged to a transition period after the rebellion was put down when the ex-slaveholders attempting to force the negroes back into virtual slavery under peonage and vagrant laws, compelled the republican party to resort to military power to protect the freedmen in their civil and political rights. Predatory and speculative whites from the north took advantage of the condition of affairs—brought about by the ex rebels themselves—and became leaders of the lately emancipated negroes in order to exploit the southern states for spoils. That evil time has passed away never to return. The northern men now in the south are there to stay as good and enterprising citizens.—Chicago Tribune.

One of the strangest political conditions in this country is that surrounding the question of general elections in the south. There are hundreds of votes suppressed in the southern states by the democracy because the votes are those of colored men. The justification of this suppression of votes is that given by the Tribune in the first sentence of the foregoing paragraph credited to that paper. Every fair-minded man, be he republican or democrat, will not hesitate to denounce this southern crime against the ballot. All honest men will confess that it is a criminate nullification of the constitution. And yet some very good northern people will go south to make that portion of the Union their permanent home, and will at once enter into the cold conspiracy to nullify the constitution of the United States by robbing a certain class of citizens of the right to vote, and this is done on the pretence that there must be no negro domination in the south.

Senator Ingall's remedy for this evil is a very plain one—enforce the law—just as you would in Wisconsin or any other state in the north. But because the senator suggests the righteous policy of simply enforcing the law, the southern press begins to denounce it as "fiendish", "incendiary," "malignant," and so on. If enforcing the general election laws in the south is "diabolical" and "bloody shirtism," and all that, why do the democratic leaders of the south demand representation in congress and in the electoral college for the votes that they suppress? If the democratic leaders desire to be fair and honest and do not want negro domination, why do they oppose letting the constitution have free course in the south the same as in the north? Section 2, of article 14 of the constitution, provides that representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers; but "when the rights to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice-president, representatives in congress and so on, is denied any of the male inhabitants of such state, being 21 years of age, the basis of representation shall be reduced to the proportion which the number of male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens 21 years of age in such state."

Here is the constitutional law of the land. Its nullification in the south should be just as much a crime as in the north. Then why do democrats object to the remedy? The objection is a very plain one. They want the negro voters to count in the apportionment of the representatives among the southern states, so as to increase the democratic representation in congress and in the electoral college, but they do not want the negro votes counted in the election.

This is the difficulty that surrounds the southern election question. The constitution is nullified in a most shameless manner by the old adherents of the Calhoun doctrine of nullification and those who mourn over the lost cause, and yet there does not appear to be power enough in this government to wipe out the crime. The same spirit that started the rebellion vaunts itself over the suppression of the negro vote in the south.

In advocating his resolution for a searching inquiry in reference to the relations of the United States with Samoa, Senator Frye made a scathing arraignment of the state department and of Secretary Bayard's pusillanimous yielding to the demands of Germany and England. The facts to be brought out will unfold another discreditable chapter in American diplomacy under Mr. Cleveland's administration. The president's reference to Samoa in his message was of the briefest kind, as well it might be, but all the facts are now bound to come out.

A report has gained currency in the north to the effect that Governor Gordon has advised the Georgia legislature to restore the appropriation of $8,000 to the Atlanta university. This report is untrue, and that excellent institution is still dependent on the voluntary contributions of the north, who have so generously helped it in the past.

President Cleveland and Cardinal Gibbons will take part in the celebration of the centennial of Georgetown next February. The exercises will continue three days.

THE WORLD OF LABOR.

THE Federation of Labor in Connecticut has 5,000 members.

THE Soap Creek Coal Company, Ottumwa, Ia., capital $250,000, was recently chartered.

THERE has been a large increase of sorghum sirup this year over last year's production.

NEARLY all the clay used in the manufacture of clay pipes is obtained at Woodbridge and Amboy, N. J.

A TRACT of 625 square miles in El Dorado County, Cal., covered with pine, has been bought by a San Francisco lumber syndicate.

THE report that the United Book-binders of New York were about to withdraw from the Knights of Labor is proved to have been false.

THE tanning of boa constrictor skins forms a branch of industry in Hamburg, N. J. They are made into pocket-books principally.

THE coal sixty miles south of Texarkana in Texas, is to be developed. A big company, to be called the Mt. Pleasant, is to be incorporated in the near future.

THERE has just been completed at Clinton, Ia., what is claimed to be the largest sawmill in the world. It has a capacity of 450,000 feet of lumber in ten hours.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., has a co-operative store that recently declared a dividend of 10½ per cent to purchasers. It has a patronage of nearly two hundred families.

THE car-builders' union of New York City has ordered a fine of $1 to be imposed on all members who, knowing of a job that is open, do not notify their idle colleagues.

THE iron furnaces of Ensley, Ala., a small town near Birmingham, are now said to be the largest in the world and with the increased capacity will employ fully 3,000 men.

NON-UNION carpenters are referred to in Denver as "bushwhackers," in Pittsburgh as "jayhawkers," in Texas as "Punch-and-Judy showmen," and in California as "traveling chips."

A TEST-WELL at Erie, Pa., now going down for gas or any other valuable subterranean deposit, is over 4,000 feet deep. It will be bored to the depth of 5,000 feet, or nearly a mile, if necessary.

AN English paper states that the modern labor-saving machinery introduced into foundries and machine shops has resulted in fifty men producing as many castings as were formerly turned out by 200 men.

THE Baldwin Locomotive Works recently received an order from the Northern Pacific railway for eighty-two new locomotives, one of the largest single orders, if not the largest, which has ever been placed by a road in operation.

THE Indianapolis Rolling-Mill Company will probably change to a wire mill. It has 4 double and 2 single puddling furnaces, 3 heating furnaces, 3 trains, 2 fifteen gross tons Siemens furnaces. Product, 30,000 tons of light and heavy rails.

THE proposed substitution of india rubber for metal in the manufacture of horse-shoes is based upon various supposed advantages, one of these being that the former enables a horse to go easily over all kinds of roads and rough or slippery ground without slipping.

A NEW YORK mining expert took four skilled men to China and has 200 natives at work developing silver mines for the Government 300 miles northwest of Tien-Tsin. Fifty thousand dollars worth of machinery has been brought from the United States.

UNDER BEN'S ROOF.

Vice-President-Elect Morton and Wife Reach Indianapolis.

NO DEMONSTRATION ON THEIR ARRIVAL.

They Are Warmly Welcomed at the Residence of General Harrison—Arrangements on Foot for a Public Reception.

HARRISON'S GUEST.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 13.—Vice-President-elect Morton and wife reached Indianapolis at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening on a special train, consisting of a baggage car and the elegant private drawing-room car "One Hundred," belonging to President Chauncey M. Depew, of the New York Central. An hour or more previous to the arrival of the special the large rotunda of the new union depot, with its thousands of incandescent lights, began to fill with people, among whom was a citizens' committee consisting of Mayor O. S. Denny, William Scott, president of the Board of Trade; Silas T. Bowen, John W. Murphy, James A. Wilson, Private Secretary Halford, Colonel John C. New, J. R. McKee, the President-elect's son-in-law; Judge E. B. Martindale, Colonel John A. Bridgeland and Major Moses McLain. General Harrison did not come down to the station.

As the train moved by the crowd it caught a first glimpse of the familiar features of the celebrated New Yorker, as he stood at the middle window, his wife beside him, peering out through the glass at the crowd and the brilliantly lighted depot. There was no demonstration of any kind. As the train came to a standstill Colonel New, Secretary Halford, Mr. McKee, Mayor Denny, Judge Martindale, Colonel Bridgeland and Mr. Scott boarded the car from the rear platform and were met at the rear door of the smoking-room by Mr. and Mrs. Morton, who had already donned their wraps and were preparing to alight. Colonel New cordially welcomed the guests and introduced Secretary Halford and Mr. McKee, who welcomed them in the name of General and Mrs. Harrison. The members of the committee and others were then introduced and the party immediately alighted and were escorted through the great rotunda, on entering which Mr. Morton stood an instant and gazed about in evident surprise at the magnificent surroundings. Carriages were in waiting, and, after bidding a number of gentlemen good-night and thanking them for their presence, the Vice-President-elect assisted Mrs. Morton to a seat, and was followed by Mr. McKee and Mr. Halford. The carriage drove rapidly through the city and out North Delaware street to the residence of General Harrison.

The Vice-President-elect and Mrs. Morton were warmly welcomed by General and Mrs. Harrison at their home. After a quiet dinner General Harrison, Mr. Morton and Judge Woods had a private conference in the General's library, and later so many prominent citizens of Indianapolis called that General and Mrs. Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Morton held an informal reception. In the midst of it the citizens' committee called, and Mayor Denny, as its spokesman, briefly welcomed Mr. Morton and asked him to appoint a time and place for a public reception, at the same time suggesting the State House as a proper place. Mr. Morton on behalf of his wife and himself thanked the mayor for his welcome and said that he would make reply regarding the public reception in the morning. After the guests had gone the Republican leaders spent the evening in an exchange of political reminiscences.

DEATH OF COLOROW.

The Notorious Chief of the Utes, and the Leader in Several Terrible Massacres, Gives Up the Ghost in Utah.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—A telegram received from Fort Duchesne, U. T., announces the death Tuesday of the notorious Ute Indian Chief Colorow from pneumonia. Colorow was 70 years old. He was the leader in the terrible Meeker massacre, and also in the Colorow war in Garfield County a year ago. Since this last outbreak he has been under military surveillance. A month ago he took cold, and pneumonia resulted. He will be succeeded by Tapovonaro, chief of the Uncompahgres.

CHIEF COLOROW.

A DIABOLICAL PLOT.

An Informer in the "Q" Dynamite Case Testifies That Bauereisen Planned Wholesale Murder by Dynamite.

GENEVA, Ill., Dec. 13.—Sensational evidence was given in the Bauereisen trial Wednesday by informer Alexander Smith, who joined the Brotherhood of Firemen a short time previous to the Burlington strike. He testified that the defendant hired him with Bowles to blow up the residences of General Manager Stone and non-union engineers and non-union boarding-houses. Bauereisen also proposed to the witness to throw dynamite cartridges into the engine tanks so the firemen would shovel them with the coal into the fire-box. During Smith's recital the lawyers for the defense were greatly agitated. Bauereisen smiled contemptuously as the informer unraveled the plot.

QUIET AT BEVIER, MO.

It Is Feared That There Will Yet Be Trouble — Forts to Be Built by the Strikers.

MACON, Ga., Dec. 13.—The situation is more quiet at Bevier but it is feared that this morning will bring more trouble. The militia officers keep out guards day and night.

John Atkinson, chairman of the strikers' committee, says that the strikers are going to build one fort about 200 yards north of where the Swedes are quartered and another one south of the Swedes just as soon as they can get their lumber shipped. It is not known what course the militia will take if the strikers carry out this threat.

The Sheriff Again in Jail.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 13.—The coroner's jury in the Hawes murder case returned a verdict that Mrs. Hawes and the girl, May, came to their death at the hands of R. B. Hawes, and that Albert Patterson and Fannie Bryant were accomplices. Two more warrants have been issued charging Sheriff Smith with murder, and he is again in jail. The prosecution will try to prevent his release on bail.

Must Become Subjects of the Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 13.—The Russian Cabinet have decided to consider that under the new law which will go into operation with the beginning of 1889 foreigners who have lived in Russia are compelled to become Russian subjects; otherwise they will be expelled from the country.

A Flat Contradiction.

Some one has told you that your catarrh is incurable. It is not so. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure it. It is pleasant to use and it always does its work thoroughly. We have yet to hear of a case in which it did not accomplish a cure when faithfully used. Catarrh is a disease which it is dangerous to neglect. A certain remedy is at your command. LIFE IN A FLAT.

Some of the Peculiar Pleasures of Dwellers in Large Cities.

Life in a flat is not wanting in incidental and stirring variety, said a flat tenant to a St. Louis Globe-Democrat reporter the other day. When my wife got into our present flat home last Monday she had a coal dealer deliver her a dollar's worth of coal for immediate use in the grate. The coal was thrown through a window into the cellar, and I saw to it that there was no other coal on the cellar floor save ours, all the other five coal houses in that cellar being locked and mine opened. Fifteen minutes later I went into the cellar to put my coal in the coal house and saw a woman who spoke good English, another tenant of the house, gathering up the last chunk of my coal and putting it into her coal house. Before I got worked up enough to call her a thief she had explained that she bought twenty-five cents worth of coal and "probably hers was thrown on top of mine." My wife appeared on the scene and waxed indignant, and the coal purloiner offered to make peace by giving back half the coal. She gave back four chunks worth about fourteen cents, and I put them in the only coal house vacant, one with an unhinged door. The German woman who tenants the second door west couldn't talk enough English to tell me why she took two coal houses with doors in good condition, and while she uttered volumes in her native tongue her mongrel dog sneaked up behind me and took off four square inches out of my pantaloons just above the ankle. There are five nationalities represented in the six flats of our building, and the odors of the cooking of five national selections of food go up and up down in our common kitchen court and lengthwise through our general hall. Scorching griddle cakes, boiling cabbage, frying onions and baking squash give off steams that are not like agreeable in all olfactory organs, but one can't be annoyed a moment by such things in a flat or life might become irksome and wanting in pleasure.

The House Passes the Bill to Refund Direct Taxes.

ITS OPPONENTS HOPE FOR A VETO.

Further Discussion of the Tariff Measure in the Senate—The River and Harbor Bill Reported—Its Principal Western Appropriations.

MONEY FOR THE STATES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The Direct Tax bill is out of the way, to the surprise of all concerned. It is the opinion here that Mr. Oates and his fellow-filibusters abandoned the fight upon an assurance that the President would veto the bill; but this, of course, can not be verified. The vote by which the bill passed lacks fourteen of being two-thirds of the House, so that it can not be passed over a veto. The bill will now have to go back to the Senate, as two amendments were adopted, but they will be readily concurred in, and it will doubtless be sent to the White House next week. The total amount to be refunded to the States under this bill is about $15,000,000, of which the State of Illinois will receive $975,000.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The event in the House yesterday was the passage of the Direct Tax bill by a vote of 178 to 96.

Mr. Blanchard (La.) reported the River and Harbor bill, and it was referred to the committee of the whole. It appropriates $11,996,850.

On motion of Mr. Hatch (Mo.) the Senate amendment to the Department of Agriculture bill was non-concurred in, and a conference was ordered.

Mr. O'Neal (Ind.) submitted the report of the Committee on Elections in the California contested election case of Sullivan against Felton. The report, which finds in favor of Sullivan, together with the views of the minority (confirming Felton's title to the seat), was placed on the calendar.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the Direct Tax bill.

Speeches were made against the bill by Messrs. Weaver (Ia.) and Cox and Cummings (N. Y.). Mr. Elliott (S. C.) offered an amendment, which was adopted, making it the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to such person as shall apply therefor, and furnish satisfactory evidence that such applicant was at the time of the sales hereinafter mentioned the legal owner, or is the heir-at-law of such lands as were sold in the parishes of St. Helena and St. Lukes in South Carolina, under acts of Congress, the value of said lands. In all cases where persons while serving in the army or navy or marine corps purchased any of said lands, and such lands afterwards reverted to the United States, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to such persons as shall in each case apply therefor, or to their heirs at law, in good faith and for valuable consideration, whatever sum was so paid to the United States in such case. In order to carry out the provisions of the amendment $350,000 is appropriated.

Mr. Oates (Ala.) offered an amendment providing for the refunding of the cotton tax. Mr. Allen (Miss.) moved to amend the amendment by proposing that the money so refunded shall be turned into the common school fund.

After the amendment offered by Mr. Allen had been voted down the amendment offered by Mr. Oates for a refund of the cotton tax was rejected by a rising vote of 61 ayes to 129 nays.

Several other amendments were offered and rejected, and the committee rose and reported the bill to the House. It was passed—yeas, 178; nays, 96.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The Senate Wednesday continued the discussion of the Tariff bill, and incidentally discussed Civil-Service reform and the recent election.

The Tariff bill was taken up shortly after noon, the pending question being the amendment offered by Senator Jones (Ark.) to admit hoops or band iron (cotton ties, etc.) free of duty, instead of taxing it two-tenths of one cent per pound additional. Senator Berry (Ark.) said that the proposed tax illustrated the injustice of the protective idea running through the Senate substitute. It was a tax on the farmers and a direct discrimination against them.

Senator Hiscock (N. Y.) said that the substitute was a political measure. It had been prepared to illustrate the principles of the Republican party. As to the pending amendment he claimed that the substitute provided a less rate of duty on cotton ties than the Mills bill did. When the ties were taken from the bale at the Liverpool market they could be sold for two thirds of their cost, so that the cost to the planter for baling 500 pounds of cotton was less than seven cents.

Senator Berry remarked that the latter statement simply meant that instead of robbing the planters of twenty cents a bale they were merely robbing him of seven cents.

Senator Hiscock thought it was rather too soon after the election to go into that sort of declamation. The Republicans do not believe that the tariff is a robbery. They believed in building up American industries. The raw material was here to make cotton ties and they could be made here, and the effect of establishing the industry would be to reduce the price.

Senator Reagan (Tex.) said the mistake made by high protectionists was that the agriculturist was not protected, but had to pay tribute to all other industries. A colloquy in regard to cotton ties led to a political discussion in which Senator Reagan said the cause of the defeat of the Democratic party in the last election was the veto of the Dependent Pension bill and Democratic discontent with the President's civil service policy, rather than to the Tariff bill. Senator Chace (R. I.) asked whether the discontent was because the President had not carried out his pledges. Senator Reagan said the discontent was because he did carry out his pledges, and because he kept Republicans in office in cases where the law did not require him to do so. Senator Hiscock asserted that there was no evidence of Democratic discontent in the State of New York with the President's civil-service policy during the last year. Then, replying to Senator Reagan's remarks about the agricultural interests in the tariff question, he reminded him of the fact that the Republicans of the State of New York went to the Harlem river with 85,000 majority, and that that part of the State was fairly agricultural.

The tariff discussion was temporarily interrupted, and on motion of Senator Hale (Me.) the House bill making an appropriation for the contingent fund of the House was passed.

The presiding officer at 2 o'clock presented as the special order for that hour the Union Pacific Funding bill, but as Senator Allison (Ia.) insisted on proceeding with the Tariff bill, the Funding bill went over, retaining all its rights as a special order.

Senator Riddleberger (Va.) gave notice that he would move, every morning, to take up his resolution for the consideration in open session of the British extradition treaty.

Senator Morgan (Ala.) characterized the proposition to tax cotton ties as a very heartless and cruel thing. It was the duty of the Senate to try to lift burdens off the Southern people instead of raising the duty on cotton ties 100 per cent. At the end of a long speech on the disadvantages of a high tariff he said: "I believe that the only legitimate use of the taxing power is to support the Government economically administered, and not to build up favorite classes at the expense of the toiling millions."

The amendment was voted on and was rejected by a strict party vote—yeas, 18; nays, 28. Senator Coke (Tex.) moved an amendment reducing the duty on cotton ties to 35 per cent ad valorem. Debate followed, but without action on the amendment the Senate at 5 o'clock adjourned.

THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL.

ATTORNEY SELLERS RESIGNS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The President has received the resignation of United States District Attorney Emery B. Sellers, of the Indianapolis district, but he has not yet accepted it, and does not wish to do so. The Attorney-General has telegraphed to Mr. Sellers saying that the President joins him in requesting a withdrawal of the resignation. It is regarded as particularly undesirable that Attorney Sellers should retire while the election frauds cases are yet pending and while the case against Colonel Dudley is in a state of doubt and uncertainty.

NOMINATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The President has sent to the Senate a large number of nominations, among them: Walter L. Bragg, of Alabama, to be an Inter-State Commerce Commissioner; Orrin B. Hallam, of Kentucky, to be Deputy First Auditor of the Treasury.

Will Be Released.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 13.—Governor Oglesby has commuted the sentence of William Thomas, who is serving a seventeen-year sentence in the Joliet penitentiary for the murder of Mr. Allen, of Sandwich, and he will be released on the 15th inst. The Governor's action was largely influenced by the confession of James Young that he committed the crime, and exonerating Thomas of complicity in the deed.

Flames at Morris, Ill.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—A fire broke out in the Hotel Hopkins in the center of the business portion of Morris, Ill., last night at 12 o'clock, and at last accounts it was being rapidly consumed. The fire engine broke down. Joliet had been telegraphed and an engine was expected to arrive soon. The indications were that the entire business part of the city would be destroyed. The cause of fire not known.

Southern Merchants Embarrassed.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Dec. 13.—J. H. Mackenzie & Co., of Waynesboro, general merchants, are reported to be embarrassed. The report comes that a creditors' bill for $2,000 was filed against them. Their liabilities are placed at from $8,000 to $10,000.

AN extensive branch foundry is to be erected at East Chicago by the C. A. Treat Car Wheel Works, of Hannibal, Mo. It will have a capacity of 400 wheels per day, which means the melting of 120 tons of iron. The foundry will cost $50,000, and will be one of the most complete of its kind in the West.

CO-OPERATION merely from economy in the use of materials ought to pay, says the Boston Commercial Bulletin, especially in competition with the wasteful handling common at many mills. That it has not paid is due somewhat to the timidity of capital, more to inefficient management, but most to the lack of real co-operation of the workmen themselves.

AFTER a trip on the Pacific coast Henry B. Williams, of Rochester, tells that carpenters out there get $2.50 per day. He says that Californians want no more Chinese, but that they need the ones already there. In the Southern part of the State the weather is too hot for any Caucasian, and here the Chinaman works in his bare head, while his Indian co-worker wears a palmetto hat.

THE MOVEMENT FOR SABBATH REFORM.

The Aims of the American Union Set Forth in the Constitution Adopted—Officers Elected—Some Interesting Speeches Made.

A DAY OF REST.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—A business meeting of the National Sabbath convention was held Wednesday morning in Foundry M. E. Church. Colonel Elliott F. Shepard presided. A constitution was read and adopted. The main features are as follows:

The basis of this union is the Divine authority and universal and perpetual obligation of the Sabbath. The object of this American Sabbath Union is to preserve the American Sabbath as a day of rest and worship. The general members shall consist of all members of all bodies auxiliary to this union and such individuals as shall signify, in writing, their approval of the constitution and their desire to become members.

The report of the nominating committee was then submitted and adopted. The officers named were as follows: President, Colonel Elliott F. Shepard; Recording Secretary, Rev. D. P. Lord, of Illinois; General Secretary and in charge of the publications, Rev. J. H. Knowles, of Newark, N. J. They were elected. R. N. Purlee, of New York, was elected Treasurer and the following members of the Executive Committee were appointed: Rev. W. F. Crafts, Rev. T. A. Fernley, of Philadelphia; Colonel W. H. Paine, of New York; Rev. Dr. W. J. R. Taylor, of Newark, N. J.; Rev. Dr. J. F. Elder, of New York; Robert F. Cutting, of New York. In commenting upon the vacant place in the Executive Committee Mr. R. Hickey suggested that the Catholic church be represented. The name of Cardinal Gibbons was suggested, and also that of Rev. Mr. McColgan, the Vicar General of the diocese of Baltimore. The first name was not voted upon and the latter being nominated was elected. Mr. Scattergood, of Philadelphia, a member of the Society of Friends; Rev. Dr. Conrad, the editor of the Lutheran Observer, and Rev. Dr. Tyler, of the Free Will Baptists, were also elected.

At the afternoon session the Blair Sunday Rest bill was discussed, and various changes were made in order to eliminate some of the religious features and place the bill more upon an economic basis.

Rev. Dr. W. A. Bartlett presided at the evening session. The theme of the evening's discussion was "The Sabbath and the Labor Problem."

Hon. Carroll D. Wright, of Washington, Commissioner of Labor, said that a general law might be passed against Sabbath desecration, but it would be of little benefit if behind it there was no decided and aggressive public sentiment. He declared himself in perfect sympathy with the movement and predicted for it ultimate success.

Representative Nelson Dingley, of Maine, said that he had made a personal investigation of the subject of Sunday labor as practiced in France and particularly in Paris. As a result he had ascertained from employers that the amount of labor performed under the seven-day system was slightly in excess of that accomplished under the old six-day system. From the workmen he learned that the compensation for seven days' labor was scarcely more than for six days. No greater calamity, he believed, could befall the American workman than to have the Sabbath swept away.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Fire Destroys the Interior of a Chicago Theater About Ten Minutes After the Audience Had Retired.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Soon after an immense audience had left the Chicago Opera-House Wednesday night about 11 o'clock fire was discovered in one of the galleries, caused by the dropping of carbon from one of the electric lights. The auditorium was soon filled with smoke, and when the fire department arrived so thick was the smoke it was impossible to enter, and volumes of water were poured into the auditorium, which is almost entirely ruined. The chorus girls of the McCaull Opera Company, stage hands and many of the prominent actors were still in the building, but all escaped. The fire was soon under control, being confined to the auditorium. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

A Boiler-Maker's Fearful Fall.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Dec. 13.—A scaffold upon which stood four employes of the Bogs foundry while erecting a smoke-stack at the Jenney electric light works fell Wednesday afternoon. Three of them clutched the scaffold on the story below and were saved. John F. Waldo, a boiler maker, fell eighty-two feet to the ground. Nearly every bone in his body was broken and he will die.

Victims of Lynch Law.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 13.—The sheriff and coroner of this county were called about twelve miles south of this city at 9 o'clock Wednesday night to view the dead bodies of two men who were found hanging near a school-house and take proper action in the matter. It is impossible to get particulars, but the supposition is that the Anti Horse-Thief Association has been doing a little work.

Re-Elected.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 13.—The Legislature in joint session Wednesday re-elected M. C. Butler as United States Senator. The vote was unanimous, except that three colored members of the House voted for T. E. Miller, the defeated Republican candidate for Congress in the Seventh (or black district).

Mackin Must Serve His Time.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 13.—Governor Oglesby Wednesday peremptorily refused Mrs. Clara Mackin, wife of Joseph Mackin, a pardon for her husband. Mrs. Mackin was greatly disappointed and is prostrated with grief. Mackin has still nine months to serve.

Killed by a Train.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 13.—While Miss Lewis, aged 18, and Miss Bynum, aged 20, were walking on the track of the Western North Carolina railroad, near Alexander, N. C., Tuesday night, they were struck and instantly killed by an express train, being horribly mangled.

Awful Deed of a Crazy Mother.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Mrs. Caroline Schmidt, aged 25, while demented, threw herself and her two children, Jennie, aged 3, and Emil, aged 2 years, from a fourth story window of a tenement Wednesday. The two children were killed and the mother perhaps fatally injured.

Gas Explosion in Quebec.

QUEBEC, Can., Dec. 13.—Gas escaping from the mains on Matelot street exploded yesterday, wrecking several houses and seriously injuring some of the inmates.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Att., Clay county, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

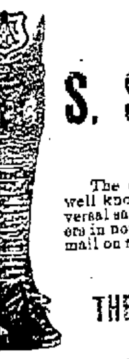

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequaled. Price 50c. and $1 at F. Sherer & Co's Drugstore.

A SENSATION.

The people are getting crazy over the Moxie Nerve Food. All the nervous, weakly women are talking about it because it takes that terrible tired feeling away so quick and keeps it off on 3 cents worth of the syrup per day. It is an artificially digested nerve food only. The men are as bad, for it breaks up the effects of dissipation and overwork in a few hours and no stimulation or reaction. It is a newly discovered process of preparing the food used by the nerves, artificially, for the purpose of giving people their full complement of nerve power, when the stomach is not able to digest it for that purpose. Overworked people take enormous quantities of it. It contains neither medicine nor alcohol.

Brain workers should never be without the great brain invigorator, Vinegar Bitters.

WHEELOCK'S
CROCKERY STORE
Would state a few facts. The stock this fall is very large especially in Holiday Goods!

We have taken account of stock on January 1st for thirty odd years and expect to do so this year. All we can dispose of before Jan. 1st is a desirable thing to do. Some people have the idea that the price of goods is advanced toward the holidays. We do not do so but think the time to put prices down is when people want goods. We know our store is small and crowded with goods so we ask the people to come early and make selections and if necessary we will put goods away for them. Our stock is complete in every line, and you can depend on the prices being bottom. Large variety of new Decorated Dinner and Chamber Sets. Lamps from 20 cents to $30, including the celebrated Rochester (solid comfort) Library, Piano and Banquet Lamps.

Novelties in Glassware.
New line of silver-plated hollow and flat ware. Novelties in Brass and Wooden ware. Immense variety of Dolls, Toy Tea Sets and Toys of All Kinds.
Table and Pocket Cutlery, Scissors, Plush Case Goods. Fruit Plates, Bone Plates, Water Sets, Condiment Sets, Sugar Shaker, Salt Shakers, Rose Jars and a long list. Goods marked in plain figures. Come in and look over the stock. Many jobs picked up in New York and the factories selling at half price.

DRUNKENNESS
Or the Liquor Habit, Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.
It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by FRANK SHERER, Druggist, 43 W. The Moyer Sanitarium, a private hospital at Youngstown, O., was destroyed by fire Wednesday morning at a loss of $8,000.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern is blockaded between Erie, Pa., and Buffalo, by 3,000 cars of New York Central freight.

The Lincoln Mills & Stock Farm Company, near Varner, Ark., have failed for $65,000, with assets approximating that amount.

A. Block, dry-goods and groceries, at Texarkana, Ark., has been closed by the sheriff, owing $70,000, with nominal assets of $100,000.

About 200 refugees entered Jacksonville, Fla., Wednesday. Bulletins were discontinued, as there have been no new cases for seven days.

Three soldiers of the Eleventh United States Infantry, stationed at Sackett's Harbor, N. Y., were drowned while fishing in Lake Ontario.

It is announced that Major George S. Avery, of Galena, will be a candidate for the United States Marshalship for the Northern District of Illinois.

Fire in a house in Baltimore Wednesday resulted in the burning to death of Elzey Morton, a colored boy, aged 4, the only occupant of the place at the time.

The Iowa Commission having the matter in charge advertise for plans and specifications for a soldiers' monument, the cost of which is not to exceed $100,000.

The National Fisheries Association held a meeting in New York. President Rahson will go to Washington to advocate some changes before the Finance Committee of the House.

VICTORY FOR DE LESSEPS.

The Panama Canal Assured—Rumors That 800,000 Shares Have Been Taken.

PARIS, Dec. 13.—Another scene of excitement was enacted at the offices of the Panama Company Wednesday. M. de Lesseps mounted a table and said: "My friends, the subscription is safe. We do not need the help of financiers. The canal is made." Here M. de Lesseps was so overcome that he wept. When the excitement had partially abated the news went around that 410,000 bonds had been subscribed for in Paris and the same number in the provinces. Marseilles alone took 55,000 bonds. An official of the company announced that the subscription list would be kept open until Saturday noon. It is reported that numbers immediately renewed their subscriptions, the receiving clerks being completely overtaxed. Rumors that 800,000 shares had been taken are believed to be exaggerated, but it is certain that the applications largely exceeded the directors' expectations. Probably the necessary 400,000 will be taken.

The Galena and Yantic Sail.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The sloop-of-war Galena, manned by 200 men, and the fourth-rate sloop-of-war Yantic sailed from the Brooklyn navy-yard at 3 p. m. Wednesday for Hayti. As the war ships moved out they received a salute from the men on the Richmond, who mounted the yard-arms and cheered lustily. Many spectators viewed the departure.

Both Were Killed.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 13.—John Wharton, a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was thrown from the cars Tuesday evening at Millham, above Trenton, by a tramp. Wharton pulled the tramp with him and both were killed by falling between the cars. They were crushed into a shapeless mass.

Thought to Have Perished.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 13.—Alfred McKerson, William Cummings, Peter Dwyer and Mrs. Cummings left Sambro in a small sail boat Tuesday, and it is believed they perished in the storm that evening. Wreckage, supposed to be from the boat, has come ashore at Herring Cove.

Three Men Drowned.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 13.—The schooner Sis Church, bound from Cape Charles to Norfolk, sunk in the storm Monday night. Captain Frank Enoch, Mato Farris and one of the crew, name unknown, were lost. The vessel belonged in New London, Conn.

Crushed by a Falling Tree.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 13.—Eber Durham, aged 35, of Sadsburyville, Chester County, Pa., was found dead at Leaman Place, near here. Tuesday night he built a fire and lay beside a tree. The tree burned and fell upon him.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at F. Sherer & Co's drugstore.

A Sad Story.

The child coughed. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. Moral: Always keep Dr. Acker's English Remedy at hand. Prentice & Evanson, druggists.

Beecham's Pills act like magic on a weak stomach.

Do Not Suffer Any Longer.

Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week, we hereby guarantee Dr. Acker's English Remedy for consumption, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it as per directions, and do not find our statement correct. Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

THE LABOR CONVENTION.

The American Federation at St. Louis Spends the Day in Discussing Various Topics, No Action, However, Being Taken.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 13.—The only business of interest at the morning session of the American Federation of Labor yesterday was the appointment of a special committee to report upon that portion of President Gomper's annual address referring to the Eight-Hour law. At the afternoon session a communication was read from the Oyster Dredgers' Union of Baltimore asking the Federation's influence against the brutality of captains; also from the Denver Trades Assembly asking the indorsement of Captain William M. Meredith of that city for the position of Public Printer at Washington.

The treasurer submitted his report, showing cash on hand December 1, 1887, $26.05, received during the year, $4,512.55; expenses, $3,933.67. Balance on hand, $604.93. Since the report was made up about $580 has been received by the treasurer. The Committee on Defense Fund reported favoring the levying of strike assessments on all affiliated unions. President Gompers took the floor in support of the report. He recommended that instead of taking the popular vote upon the question it should be voted on by unions as a body. This brought out the conditional point that the matter must be submitted to the individual members. After considerable debate, in which it was plain that the delegates were unanimously in favor of establishing a method of procuring strike funds from the affiliated unions, the subject matter was referred back to the committee, as it had been amended so much that it was not in good shape. The Committee on Organization reported favoring the appointment of organizers and the immediate strengthening of the weaker unions. One delegate declared that there were 90,000 unorganized coal miners in Pennsylvania, and that they were at the mercy of the employers; they should be solidly organized at once. The report also favors the amendment of the constitution of the United States and the passage of the National child labor and compulsory educational laws. This brought out a discussion which came near revealing the politics of every delegate present. The matter went over by default, discussion having revealed the fact that it was a rather comprehensive question and matters of more immediate importance should first be considered. The secretary then read a number of requests, resolutions, etc., and they were referred to different committees.

ANOTHER TRUST PROBABLE.

F. B. Thurber, of New York City, Thinks a Combination of Wholesale Grocers a Strong Possibility in the Near Future.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The committee appointed by the State Senate to investigate trusts met Wednesday in the Supreme Court to continue its hearings. Mr. F. B. Thurber was among the witnesses. He said there were two organizations of grocers in this city, the Wholesale Grocers' Association of New York and vicinity, and the New York State Wholesale Grocers' Association. They were formed for the purpose of regulating prices and making rules for carrying on the trade. He said that the articles considered by the associations so far were cocoa, sugar and baking powder. The members agreed to sell only at certain prices. There was no penalty attached to selling at rates below the Association rates. Mr. Thurber admitted that the price of refined sugar had been advanced one and one-half cent per pound since the formation of the sugar trust. Any member of the Wholesale Grocers' association was at liberty to buy from sugar manufacturers outside the sugar trust. Mr. Thurber said there was talk of the formation of a National Wholesale Grocers' Association, and his belief was that before May 1, 1889, such a trust would be formed.

F. J. Goodhart, a broker, testified that he was familiar with the operations of the distillers trust. Its headquarters are in Illinois. Its capital is about $30,000,000, represented by share certificates, which are dealt in on the street, but not on the exchange. Dividends are paid to stockholders who are registered at the office of the Central Trust Company, this city. The shares are at present paying ⅝ per cent. per month.

GATLING GUNS FOR PIRATES.

Secretary Whitney Sends Aid to the Maryland Authorities.

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 23.—The piratical oyster dredgers are defiant. Wednesday night it was reported that an attack was to be made on the police sloop Folly, which is on guard at Hackett's Point. As other police boats are elsewhere, Governor Jackson has telegraphed Secretary Whitney requesting the use of steam launches and Gatling guns now at the naval academy at Annapolis. At 11:30 o'clock Superintendent Sampson received instructions to furnish the State what assistance he could, and he at once commenced to make ready two of the launches, arming one with a howitzer and the other with a Gatling gun. Captain Howard and the crew of the disabled police steamer McLane will take charge of the launches and go at once to Hackett's Point, where the Folly is said to be surrounded by about forty dredging schooners.

THE INTER-STATE LAW.

Chairman Cooley Wants It Made Stronger—Railroads Resisting the Provisions of the Act Are as Dangerous as Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—In an interview upon the subject of the Inter-State Commerce law, Chairman Cooley, of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, said: The commission not only favors the retention of every provision of the law as it now stands, but desires that it be made stronger. He could see no difference between tariff protected trusts and railroad trusts, and both were a menace to the welfare of the country. In resisting the law and refusing to carry it out the railroads place themselves on a level with Anarchists.

Would Be Better Without Them.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Nearly 100 consuls in Europe have answered the questions sent out by the Ford Immigration Committee. The replies agree that the United States is getting the scum of the population of Europe, and that ignorance, deceit and steamship owners' greed combine to flood this country with this class of people.

The Suakim Campaign.

SUAKIM, Dec. 13.—The rebels maintain a heavy musketry fire. Their commander, Osman Naib, has been wounded in the neck by the explosion of a shell. The shells fired at the rebels are doing heavy damage. A letter has been received from Osman Digna, but its contents are unknown.

Frozen to Death.

VIENNA, Dec. 13.—Six gypsies have been frozen to death in Boskowitz.

Catarrh Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren St., New York city, will receive the recipe free of charge

Digest and be Jolly.

Did ever any one see a jolly dyspeptic? We trow not. What natural cheerfulness is proof against the almost ceaseless bodily annoyance of chronic indigestion? People whose stomachs are constantly disturbed exhibit the utmost peevishness and nervous irritability. Happily for them—since the irritable and nervous prematurely fret themselves into the grave—tranquility of the stomach and renewed good temper await them in a sure quarter, if they will but seek it. The genial stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, breeds cheerfulness by insuring its essential pre-condition—easy digestion. Biliousness, too, and constipation, malevolent companions of the banished dyspepsia, vanish after a brief but steady course of the national alternative. Many a temper naturally sweet, but continuously soured by the combined attack of this trio of imps, passes the boundary of monomania. Prevent this possibility with the Bitters. Malarial fevers, rheumatism, kidney complaints, and debility are truly relieved by this standard medicine.

AMERICAN HOMES.

Mrs. Shirley Birdington, of West St. Paul, Minn., writes:

I do not regard marriage in my own case as a glittering success. It certainly lacks many of the elements of success. People who envy me my lot would not do so if they had to pay taxes on it.

I attribute the failure of our marriage largely to the personale of a party named La Fayette Birdington, who married me and has resided at his club ever since. La Fayette Birdington labors under the delusion that he is a popular favorite, and that when he married me he kind of let himself down several notches. He has often said to me that he made a mistake, and that his life had been thus wrecked. I told him that I knew he was a wreck, but if I thought I had any hand in it I would be ashamed of myself.

Mr. Birdington loves to dwell on himself. About the only real pleasure I have in conversing with him consists in drawing him out and getting him to indorse himself. He always had large bunions on his egotism where it chafed against what he really is.

I attribute the failure of our marriage to this feature. Mr. Birdington considers me as a social clog and seems to regard me mostly in the light of a boarding-house keeper who does not have to be paid. He comes home to change his socks, clean his teeth and take his bath. One time he was ill from gastric disturbance, brought on by high living at his club. He had to remain at home two weeks, but living on the plain diet I am accustomed to soon brought back the flush of health to his wan cheek.

I could not suggest any thing as a remedy in our case unless it would be the arrival at my door of an express wagon conveying the trunk of Mr. Birdington this afternoon and another wagon to-morrow with his limbs. Some will say that I am hasty, perhaps, and unjust, but if I'm going to be a widow all my life, in fact, I'd like to have the credit of it. Mr. Birdington has the name of being genial, but at home he swears at me and dares me to lay a hand on him. I've seen enough of his career to know that he is afraid of a man, but he knows he can bluff me, and so he overworks his genial disposition among the boys and then sasses me all the time he is at home.

One time a burglar got into the house and I woke La Fayette up to tell him about it. He got up and went up into the attic, where he remained until the burglar went away. Then he came back and accused me of dividing the change in his pockets with the burglar.

The other questions have nothing to do with my case.

Arnold Wyatt writes:

In my own case I regard marriage as a fizzle. I am a temperate man, who was accustomed to a good home as a boy. I would rather put in my spare time at home than anywhere else, but my wife claims that I am too tame. She has read so much about men who were magnificent but bad that she really pities me. I can see, and regards me as a fraud. She is of a romantic mold and feels humiliated because I never committed a crime of any size.

She had a chance to marry a man who had been indicted by the grand jury, and who had a marble brow. He was a man who needed a wife to appeal to his better nature, he said. He had been extremely wicked and vicious, but wanted a loving wife to take him by the hand and lead him back to the statutes in such case made and provided. My wife regards it as the great mistake of her life that she did not accept the job.

I wish she had.

For my own part I would have been glad to do what I could as a social monster if I had thought of it in time, but I neglected it until the thought of crime is distasteful to me.

I can not suggest any thing at all as a remedy. My life is utterly and entirely wrecked because I am too tame for my wife. She yearns for a ferocious man and I can not be such. I have tried repeatedly to do something which would shock society from center to circumference, but society only laughed and pointed out something in its midst that was so much worse than any thing I had ever done that I felt ashamed of myself.

I did not advertise for my wife. She obtained me, however, in that way. I am a great admirer of the American press, but I do not think it is safe to answer a want advertisement for marital purposes. If I had my life to live over I would make my early history read like the personal memoirs of the Bender family. Instead of getting an education and learning habits of industry and economy I would roll up my pantaloons and wade in warm blood. I would also be a gay Lothario and socially as crooked as possible, so as to have a spicy record. Then I would woo several young women in different States and marry them, for certainly there is a class of girls who take little interest in one who seeks to conform to the spirit of the Ten Commandments.

There are several other replies on hand, but the above will show that there is certainly a singular state of affairs in some of our American homes. BILL NYE.

THOSE UNHAPPY PERSONS who suffer from nervousness and dyspepsia should use Carter's Little Nerve pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents.

FELLOWS.

—Although the weather has been unquestionably fine for this time of year, hard colds are still very prevalent.

—Lewis Apfel with engine has been engaged by Mr. Nash of Janesville, to run his hay press this winter.

—Wm. Apfel, wife and son, of Milwaukee, arrived here Saturday last and we believe contemplate spending the winter in these parts.

—John B. Hopkins of Woonsocket, Dakota, arrived here on Wednesday of last week with a car load of live stock. He will make parents and friends a visit before returning.

—Turkey buyers are quite plenty this year and in consequence farmers are receiving good prices for their fowls.

WOMEN WITH PALE COLORLESS FACES who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Carter's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nerves and complexion,

I have had nasal catarrh for ten years so bad that there was great sores in my nose, and one place was eaten through. I got Ely's Cream Balm. Two bottles did the work. My nose and head are well. I feel like another man—C. S. McMillen, Sibley, Jackson Co., Mo.

For all forms of nasal catarrh where there is dryness of the air passage with what is commonly called "stuffing up," especially when going to bed, Ely's Cream Balm gives immediate relief. Its benefit to me has been priceless—A. G. Case, M. D., Millwood, Kas.

THE CITY BEAUTIFUL.

Sometimes when the day is ended
And its round of duties done,
I watch at the western windows
The gleam of the setting sun.
When my heart has been unquiet
And its longings unbeguiled
By the day's vexatious trials
And can not be reconciled,
I look on the slope of the mountains
And o'er the restless sea,
And I think of the beautiful city
That lieth not far from me—
And my spirit is hushed in a moment,
As the twilight falls tender and sweet,
And I cross, in my fancy, the river,
And kneel at the Master's feet.
And I rest in the shade that there falleth
From the trees that with healing are rife—
That shadow the banks of the river—
The river of water of life.
And, some time, when daylight is ended,
And the duties He gave me are done,
I shall watch at life's western windows
The gleam of its setting sun.
I shall fall asleep in the twilight
As I never have slept before,
To dream of the beautiful city
Till I waken to sleep no more.
There will fall on my restless spirit
A hush, O so wondrously sweet,
And I shall cross o'er the river
To rest at the Master's feet!

THE JOHNSTOWN RAILROAD.

Ten Thousand Dollars Pledged—Janesville's Share.

The call that was issued for a railroad meeting at Johnstown Center resulted in a large attendance, the hall of the Johnson House being crowded. The meeting was called to order by Mr. R. T. Pember who was elected chairman, Mr. F. S. Winslow being elected secretary. Mr. Pember stated that the object of the meeting was to appoint a committee to confer with the officers of the C. & N. W. and St. Paul Railroads to see what could be done about securing a road from Janesville to Johnstown, having Geneva Lake as a terminus. After a lively discussion in which an active interest was manifest, a committee consisting of Wm. Zull, F. S. Winslow and R. T. Pember was appointed, with instructions to report at an adjourned meeting, to be held January 22d. The committee was instructed to confer with the county board and with the people of Janesville, regarding the matter. It was argued that the road would save the county a good many thousand dollars. The sense of the meeting was unanimous in saying that Johnstown would give $10,000 toward the enterprise.

Janesville people can well afford to show an interest in the Johnstown road. It would give increased railway facilities and possess many advantages. The committee will doubtless meet with a cordial reception.

THE PRIZE WINNERS.

Those Drawing Prizes at St. Mary's Fair Last Evening.

The fair of the St. Mary's society now being held at the Armory, drew a good sized crowd last evening, the interest appearing to increase as the fair progresses. Last evening in addition to the Catholic Cornet Band concert, there was some vocal music by local talent which was well received. The drawing of prizes was commenced, and the following proved to be lucky number-holders—the name of the donor of the article is also given:

China tea set, donated by Mrs. John O Grady, No. 301, held by Dr. James Mills.

Crazy work table scarf, donated by Miss Maggie Kennedy, No. 53, held by Mr. Stephen Cunningham, Rock Prairie.

Table scarf, donated by Miss Eliza Mullen, No. 37, held by F. L. Hull, Milton Junction.

Steel engraving, "Spring," donated by Mrs. Frank Yerg, No. 83, held by Patrick McKeigue.

Picture, "The Twins," donated by Miss Annie McKinney, No. 99 held by Henry Paskey.

Bible stand, donated by Mrs. Nicholas Reed, No. 40, held by Eda Hemmings.

Corner bracket, donated by Mrs. Nicholas Reed, No. 64, held by Rev. John Roche.

Book, "Christ in His Church", donated by Mrs. John Griffin, No. 46, held by Miss Bridget O'Rourke.

"Life of Leo XIII," donated by M. Holleran, No. 21, held by Minnie Cantwell.

This evening there will be singing, recitations and a general good time. Only ten cents admission.

THEY CALL IT MALICE.

Officers of the Merchants' Association on the War-Path.

A few days ago an article appeared in one of the Racine papers denouncing the Merchants' Retail Commercial Association as a fraud. The article attracted considerable attention in this city somewhat over a hundred Janesville business men having been confident six dollars worth that the association was a good thing. Secretary Charles Sanborn, of the local institution, at once wrote to the Chicago office, demanding an explanation. This morning a letter was received denying the truth of the Racine article in vigorous terms. The Racine article is charged to a Racine business man who is not on good terms with the company.

"The matter is being investigated," says the writer, "and somebody will be made to suffer. Will give full particulars later."

A GIFTED PARROT.

It Can Sing Many Songs and Is an Authority on Slang.

For more than a year, says Major Stofer, in the St. Louis Republic, the members of Congress and others who make a practice of walking down Pennsylvania avenue from the Capitol were greatly interested in a celebrated parrot, which used to do some remarkable talking as he sat perched in a cage in front of a bird store near Third street. When that bird was less than a year old he was so apt at mimicry that its owners refused $100 for the Poll. It could sing nearly the whole of the chorus of "Peek-a-Boo" in a splendid voice, could sing in a perfect manner a snatch or two from the popular song, "I'm a Dude, a Dandy Dude," and say ever so many things, such as "Ah there, girls!" "Pretty girl." "He's a masher," etc. Newsboys who stop in front of the store would cry out, "Paper this evening?" and the parrot had been taught to say, "Not this evening, some other evening." The famous bird loved to show off, and passers-by had lots of fun listening to him from day to day, and finally the owner of the parrot got $250 for him. The Congressmen miss him very much. The other day a crowd of Capitol frequenters were discussing the merits of this bird and regretting he had been sold, when some one wanted to know if parrots could really think. "I'm positive of it," said Colonel Wiggins, the printing clerk of the House. "I remember years ago, when Washington was a smaller place, that some boys were stealing cherries from a lot near where I lived. A parrot, which my neighbor owned, saw them, and bawled out loudly to a colored woman in the kitchen, 'Liza, 'Liza; boys stealing cherries.' You may not believe this, but it is a fact." Colonel Wiggins didn't tell his yarn late at night, either.

IN THE CITY HOSPITAL.

What Has Been Happening There During the Twelve Months Past.

Facts Which Show the Hospital's Value—What the Institution Has Cost.

After a twelve months test the hospital was reviewed last evening. It was found that an average of five patients had been under treatment at all times since the institution was opened. The receipts from pay patients was reported to be $1200, leaving an annual deficit of only about $800.

These facts were only a few of those brought out in the report of Secretary E. B. Heimstreet at the first annual meeting of the City Hospital association last evening.

The meeting was called to order by President S. B. Smith in the Fire Police rooms. Mrs. H. D. McKinney was elected director, vice Mrs. J. L. Ford, resigned. Mrs. John Winans, Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, Stanley B. Smith, Herman Buchholz and Hiram Merrill were elected directors for three years. A vote of thanks was tendered the officers and directors, and especially Mrs. E. D. Tallman for work during the year. A committee consisting of E. B. Heimstreet J. P. Baker and John M. Kneff were appointed to arrange for the annual Charity ball to be given early in January.

Secretary Heimstreet's report on the work of the year was as follows:

"The constitution and articles of incorporation of the Janesville City Hospital were adopted on the 9th day of December, 1887. The charter was granted on the 3d day of January, 1888. Permanent quarters were secured by the society with but little delay, which were properly fitted up, and the first patient was admitted to the hospital on the 7th day of March of the present year. This report, therefore, covers an actual working period of nine months. The following tables show the number, sex, age and nationality of the inmates, whether they were pay or charity patients, the nature of their diseases and the result of the treatment afforded them:

At the last regular meeting of the board of directors the sum of thirty dollars was placed at the disposal of a committee to be expended in advertising the hospital. Favorable arrangements were made with all the newspapers of Rock county and with many adjoining counties, by which means the hospital has been brought to the notice of most of the residents of southern Wisconsin, and the favorable influences of this action have already been felt.

The rent of the building has been paid in full up to the 20th of March, next. The outlay for surgical appliances includes a Crosby patent bed, an operating chair and other articles necessary in this department. Among the outlays under the head of miscellaneous is the cost of a capacious cesspool and of storm doors —the former costing $42.14 and the latter $11.38. In fact the hospital has all the necessary resources of a first-class institution, and all the desirable conveniences, such as artesian water, gas, telephone, steam heating and good drainage have been provided.

Besides the receipts mentioned in the foregoing figures, there have been many contributions of supplies of all kinds furnished by the residents of the city. It would of course be premature, with less than one year's history of the hospital, to make estimates for the hospital with any attempt at exactness, but it may be said that the expenses up to the present time indicate that about two thousand dollars a year will be required for the necessary outlays. Should the receipts from patients continue as they have been, the revenue from that source will be something like $1,200, leaving a deficiency, which will have to be made up, at about $800, annually.

SOME GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

This report should not omit a reference to a few matters connected with a brief history of this enterprise. That there was a pressing demand for a hospital in Janesville is amply attested by the fact that the average number of patients who have been accommodated have been five—at no date has there been less than two, while seven have received treatment much of the time. The favorable situation of the building, with its high rooms which are abundantly lighted and well warmed has the universal commendation of the physicians of the city. The readiness with which these gentlemen have given their counsel and assistance in this enterprise entitle them to the warmest thanks of all charitably disposed persons. It is certain that but for the invaluable aid which they have rendered its present high efficiency could not have been reached. But the suggestions, which their experience enabled them to make to promote the utility and excellence of the hospital, could not have been realized had it not been for the sympathy and generosity which the people of Janesville have constantly manifested for its success. And this success is in no small part to be attributed to the zeal and attention which have been given to the management of the institution by some of the ladies who belong to the board of directors, their labors have been intelligent untiring, and they have the appreciation of those who have seen their labors and sacrifices. It would likewise be an omission not to commend the manner in which the internal affairs of the hospital are administered. The board has been particularly fortunate in having the services of a competent an conscientious matron who exercises diligence and economy in her management, and whose considerate attention to the unfortunate is not less marked than her wise direction of the business interests of the hospital.

The membership is as follows: Mrs. J. L. Ford, Mrs. F. F. Stevens, Mrs A. P. Lovejoy, Mrs. H. D. McKinney, Miss DeEtta Howard, Mrs A. M. Valentine, Mrs. H. S. Woodruff, Mrs. E. D Tallman, Mrs. John Winans, Mrs. C. S Crosby, Mrs. Hiram Merrill, Mrs. J. T. Wright, Mrs. Chas. W. Hodson, Miss M. E. Gould, and Messrs. S. B. Smith, J. P. Baker, J. M Whitehead, R. Valentine, E. B. Heimstreet, Dr. Henry Palmer, H S Woodruff, Wm. Payne, John M Kneff, Herman Buchholz, Dr. Thor Judd, E. H Bennett, I. C. Brownell, H. F. Bliss, W. S. Jeffris, John Heath, A. P. Lovejoy, Dr. W. H. Palmer, Hiram Merrill, Louis F. Knipp, Karl Pabst, A. E Rich, Thos. McKey and C. S. Jackman.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
E. B. HEIMSTREET,
Secretary.

Since the above report was made out the secretary stated that he had received from Court Street M. E. church, $9 75; from Trinity Episcopal church, $7 13, and for board, $72. Two new patients had been placed in the hospital since Tuesday.

One thousand dollars insurance on the property of the association has been donated by Messrs. Silas Hayner and M. E. Northrop, $500 each.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is fast taking the place of all the old fashioned cough remedies. It never fails to relieve the most violent cold, and for throat diseases it is invaluable. Price 25 cents.

DANCERS IN COSTUMES.

The Last Night of the Nijni Novgorod a Pleasant One.

All lines were washed out at Apollo hall last evening. Don Carlos, the ranchero, whirled Yum Yum in the waltz, a tartan clad bag-piper trod off a measure of the Scotch reel with the Italian girl, and Senor Leon de Cabarreno from Castile had for a partner one of the charming daughters of Greece. It was the ending of the Nijni Novgorod and the picturesquely-attired company of young people kept time to music of the Arion orchestra until well towards midnight.

Before dancing was announced supper was served and the fancy goods remaining in the booths were sold at aution. George M. McKey acted as auctioneer being assisted by Rob. M. Bostwick. When the auction was ended a review was made of the receipts and expenditures of the fair and a balance of about one hundred dollars was found to remain. It was a success well earned, and many congratulations will be bestowed upon the ladies of Christ church.

INTELLIGENT CRITICISM.

Mabelle—Have you read "Robert Elsmere", Nan?

Nan—Oh, yes, indeed.

"And how did you like it?"

"Oh, it's just splendid!"

"Isn't it, though?"

"Wasn't Elsmere lovely?"

"Wasn't he, though?"

"What an awful flirt Rose was!"

"Dreadful!"

"What did you think of Robert's wife?"

"Oh, she was a regular prude, wasn't she?"

"Of course. But what did you think of the theology of the book?"

"The theology. Good heavens, I didn't know there was any in it! I guess I skipped that."

"Did you? Why, so did I. Anyhow, I can say I've read the book."

"So can I."—Time.

HIS HOME TAKEN AWAY.

A Pathetic Case Brought to Light in This City by an Emigrant's Story.

His Money Stolen—He Breaks Down after Walking from Chicago to Janesville.

Penniless, sick and friendless: among strange people, and with an aged mother depending on him for support—it was enough to break down many a stronger man than poor, simple-hearted Anton Kleberman. Kleberman arrived in the city yesterday. Haggard and worn-out he was pushing his way on to Minnesota but when told of the distance that still lay before him he broke down in despair.

"They stolt me in Chicago it was not so far," he said. "I can no go more."

"You don't mean to say you walked here from Chicago?" was asked, but it was some time before an answer could be elicited.

Only with difficulty could the man's broken English be understood. The story of his weary plodding from Chicago to Janesville was finally learned, but not without much questioning, Kleberman being slow to give the story of his troubles to strange ears.

Apparently about forty years of age he claimed to have served three years in the Prussian army before coming to this country. He left Germany for America to make a home for his aged mother. He found work on a farm in Pennsylvania and remained for eight years. During that time he got together a trifle over seven hundred dollars. He decided to wait no longer. Sending word to his mother he started for Minnesota to secure a farm of which he had been told by friends and to make ready so that his mother might soon come.

He had his money locked up in a satchel. When he went to sleep on the train between Cleveland and Chicago, his satchel was between his feet, but when he picked it up the next morning it had been slit from end to end. The money was gone, and not content with what was in the satchel, the thieves had deftly unbuttoned their victim's vest and taken his railroad ticket and twenty-eight dollars besides.

When Klebermann stepped off the train in Chicago he was without a cent. The police could do little to help him, and knowing nothing else to do he decided to make his way to his Minnesota friends on foot. Excepting for an occasional ride on farm wagons he had gone as far as Janesville in that manner when his courage gave out.

While telling of his experience Klebermann broke down and wept like a child. The thought of his mother's disappointment and of losing the results of his years of work overcame him completely.

Work was found for him last evening on a farm near this city, and his immediate necessities were provided for by a purse raised by a few of those who heard the story.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN.

—Interesting meetings were held last week. Cottage meetings in the afternoon and preaching at the church in the evening, resulting in the quickning of those of the church who attended and the reclaiming of one and the conversion of another. It was voted by the church to continue the meeting, and call Rev. O. D. Moon from Rutland, where he had gone to spend the Sabbath, to assist the pastor in revival work. Had a very interesting meeting Sunday morning, also in the evening. Cottage prayer meetings this week at 2 p. m.

—MARRIED—Stone-Jewell—At the F. W. B. parsonage, December 8, 1884, by Rev. Windsor Brown, assisted by Rev. W. R. Brown, of Moon, of Hillsdale, Mich., Jesse Stone, of Milton, formerly of Somerset, England, and Mary Jane Jewell, of Johnstown, formerly of Bristol, England. Witnesses, Henry Boon and Minnie Amelia Mary Boon, of Milton.

—Monday was the 31st anniversary of Rev Winsor Brown and Julia Ette Holmes Brown's marriage. This was announced on last Sunday, with a request that the parishioners met at the parsonage and take dinner and then have a prayer meeting at 2 p. m. Quite a number responded and a very pleasant time resulted. The prayer meeting was most excellent. The occasion will be remembered by all. The bonds of love and sympathy between pastor and people are growing stronger all the time.

—Mrs. Bacon died very suddenly Saturday night with neuralgia of the heart. The funeral services will take place at the Congregational church at Milton to-day at one o'clock, Rev Sanborn officiating.

—Rev. W. R. Moon goes to Oshkosh to receive another treatment to-day. He nerves are slowly regaining strength. He expects to return to Hillsdale Saturday.

—There will be a temperance entertainment at the church Saturday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. A general invitation is given.

—The Woman's Missionary society will give an entertainment Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock. Prayer service at 6:30. It is hoped that the attendance will be large. All are invited to attend the revival services.

THERE IS NO ONE ARTICLE IN THE LINE of medicines that gives so large a return for the money as a good porous strengthening plaster, such as Carter's Smart Weed Belladonna Backache Plasters.

ALBANY.

—Jensoold & Walters have erected a bilding 25x50 feet at the corner of Main and Mechanic streets, where they will carry on the business of wagon and plow making, and general repairs.

—Dr. T. W. Nazum, having purchased the residence of Dr. Baison in Brodhead, will remove on Tuesday to that place, and continue his practice. He will be succeeded here by Dr. J. F. Larkin, of this state.

—An incipient blaze created not a little consternation in the home of Austin Wessel on Friday night. An attendant upon Mrs. Wessel who was confined to her bed, misplaced a lighted lamp which fell from the table, breaking the same, and igniting the oil on the carpet. Prompt and vigorous action on the part of the members of the household and others, prevented a conflagration, the loss being confined to damage to carpet rags, furniture and clothing.

—Dr. Ira Sills and wife took their departure on Thursday last for Marysville, Kansas, whither they have gone to spend the winter with relatives and friends at that point and at Topeka, Kansas.

—Albany Lodge, No. 35, F & A. M., held their annual election of officers Wednesday Dec. 4. Following are the names of members chosen to fill the several stations for the ensuing year. H. B. Jobes—W. M. John Hahn—S. W. N. B. Murrey—J. W. Z. W. Bartlett—S. D. W. R. Lewis—J. D. A. Christopher—Secretary. Thomas Gravenor—Treasurer. E. T. Humes, J. F. Annis, —Stewards. Wessel Tyler—P. C.

Why Women Fade.

Women lose their beauty because colds undermine their life. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for consumption is an absolute cure for colds. Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

ORFORDVILLE.

—Diphtheria is drawing to a close in this place. The Lacy family are out of quarantine, but the Hoovers are still confined. We are in hopes that no new cases will appear.

—L. C. Fisher, a former resident and postmaster of this place, who has been visiting with friends, has departed for his home.

—H. B. Madgorden's house is nearly ready. The painters are giving it the finishing touches.

—Rev. Bergh's children have been very sick but are now reported better. Dr. Bennett, of Brodhead attends them.

—Mr. B. N. Brumswold is expected home from St. Ansgard, Iowa, where he has worked in a meat market all summer.

—The steam grinder that started here last fall is doing good work, and lots of it. We are glad of such an industry, if only it could be made permanent.

—Dr. J. S. Johnson has gone from us this fall, to resume his practise in Madison, Dakota. We are sorry to lose so reliable a physician from our midst. We hope that the doctor will establish a lucrative business in that place; and we wish him and his family abundant success on the western frontier.

—Before election every one talked about who would be elected president, but now everyone is talking about who is to become our next postmaster. Four or five petitions are in circulation all ready and as many more predicted will enter the contest before the fourth of next March.
